RE: September 2021 Price Increase

Dear Valued Distributor Partners,

Due to circumstances out of our control, we are forced to adjust pricing again effective September 15th.

Attached please find your updated price list for review. Any orders placed with a ship date prior to September 15, 2021 will be honored at the current prices.

We thank you for your understanding and continued support of the AIRCAT Pneumatic Tool product line.

Sincerely,

Chris Hirsch
